

NSS IITD

15TH AUGUST EVENTS REPORT

2023

AWARENESS SESSION

As the sun set on August 14th, a unique moment unfurled at 6:30 pm—an enlightening Awareness Session, held in harmony with the BloodConnect Foundation. Imagine Lecture Hall 318 as the stage, where Dr. Ashish and Miss Preeti from the Hindu Rao Hospital Blood Bank took the spotlight as speakers.

Their goal? A dynamic and interactive session aimed at dispelling myths around blood donation. The objective was simple yet profound: to cultivate awareness and kindle the spirit of participation in the upcoming Blood Donation Camp on August 15th, from 10 am to 5 pm. This wasn't merely a session; it was an avenue for 100+ students to delve into the world of understanding and action, as India's 77th Independence Day neared.

MOVIE SCREENING

On August 14th at 4 pm, NSS IITD curated an event that intrigued minds—the "Movie Screening." Imagine the Seminar Hall, a hive of activity, as they unveiled the 2004 gem "Swades." Over 300 students gathered, a sea of anticipation filling the space in less than 10 minutes.

In the blink of an eye, the hall buzzed with animated voices—cheers, excitement, and even poignant emotions. The heart of the movie? A scientist's poignant return to India, a tale that resonated deeply.

But this is just the prologue. As the final frame flickered, a transformation occurred. Fueled by the cinematic journey, students seamlessly merged into an Independence Day march, ablaze with fervor and patriotism. A tale of celluloid magic, emotion, and unity—a story ready to be unraveled.

MARCH

On 15th August 2023, as the clock struck midnight, a wave of patriotism swept over the students of IIT Delhi, drawing them to the heart of the campus—the Main building. With eyes ablaze with love for their nation, they embarked on a journey under the starry sky, their voices uniting in resounding echoes of VANDÉ MATARAM. Their destination? The Himadri circle, where the national flag soared with unwavering pride.

But that's not the whole story! The security personnel joined this spirited journey, adding a sense of unity. Upon arrival, a symphony of voices swelled, singing the national anthem in harmony. And as the night embraced them once more, they retraced their steps back to where it all began—the Main building, igniting the spark of the 77th Independence Day celebration organized by NSS IIT Delhi.

BLOOD DONATION CAMP

Imagine the dawn of August 15th, where an act of humanity took center stage. From 10 am to 5 pm, the central atrium within the Lecture Hall Complex transformed into a haven—a Blood Donation Camp, orchestrated by NSS IIT Delhi. Hindu Rao Hospital Blood Bank stood ready, embraced by the esteemed Prof. Narayanan Kurur, the Dean, Academics, who not only inaugurated the event but also led by example as the first blood donor. A milestone was achieved, breaking past records with over 300 life-saving contributions, harmonizing with the BloodConnect Foundation.

But this was a tale that began a day prior, on August 14th, with an enlightening awareness session, seeding the purpose of the upcoming camp and nurturing the spirit of participation.

HEALTH CAMP

Imagine a vibrant scene on August 15th, starting at 10:30 am and stretching till 5:00 pm—an unfolding Health Camp at the Exhall, an arena of well-being. All the way from Metro Hospital Noida, a squad of health wizards arrived, specializing in the art of nurturing. Picture this: dieticians, cardiologists, physiologists—a team primed to weave a tapestry of wellness. Their arsenal? An array of marvels—blood sugar checks, heart CGI scans, BP readings, weight assessments, and a medley of essentials.

But here's the intrigue—the canvas of participants was kaleidoscopic. IIT Delhi's staff, denizens of the campus, students of IIT Delhi and neighboring schools and colleges all converged.

The impact? 170+ souls embarked on this journey, embracing health as they etched a unique chapter in the story of the 77th Independence Day, a chapter painted with vitality and care.

ARMY PANEL

Step into a realm frozen at 4 PM on August 16th, where the Seminar Hall at IIT Delhi hosted a remarkable event— "India @77: Challenges and Way Forward."

Guiding this voyage was the esteemed Major General Yash Mor. Amongst whispers of excitement, a vibrant assembly of 100+ students converged, breathing life into the session with their active involvement.

The spotlight shone on the past 76 years, unravelling the tapestry of India's trials and triumphs. Embedded within were glimpses of an army officer's life—a narrative of valor and commitment. The event thrived until 5:30 PM, a symphony of success that culminated with the esteemed speaker's felicitation and departure, etching an unforgettable mark on the 77th Independence Day celebration.

